REPORT No. 2.

Your Board of Education begs leave to submit report No. 2 as follows:

A year ago a report was adopted by this Board and by the Conference setting forth our conviction of the necessity of an adequate endowment for our schools and affirming our intention to begin an active canvass for funds this coming year, this canvass to culminate with our centennial, so that our one hundredth anniversary might mark a great step forward in the cause of Christian education among us. We also began a campaign of information which was not carried to completion because of certain limitations and hindrances, though some twenty thousand copies of the Bulletin were issued and mailed to our people.

We here and now reaffirm with all emphasis our conviction that this campaign for an endowment fund of not less than $500,000.00 must be pushed to a finish, $275,000.00 for Emory and Henry College, $175,000.00 for Martha Washington College, and $50,000.00 for Hiwassee College.

The Christian colleges of America must help to save the world. A great world-war has brought us as never before the great lesson of preparedness. We must equip our colleges to meet all competition and do the work required of them. It will be too late to get ready after they are forced, through lack of financial support, out of existence. We must get ready now.

In view of these facts we make the following recommendations for the prosecution of our educational campaign:

1. That J. S. French, N. M. Watson, J. C. Orr, T. J. Eskridge and R. L. Jordan be appointed a committee of management for this campaign, with Dr. C. C. Weaver as Secretary of the committee.

2. That an active campaign of information, setting forth the imperative necessity for Christian education and the immediate and pressing necessity for better equipment and adequate endowment for our colleges, be begun at once and carried on vigorously until it touches, if possible, every charge and local church within the bounds of our Conference.

3. We request our presiding Bishop to appoint a Secretary of Education for each presiding elder's district, this Secretary of Education and the Presiding Elder of the district to be a special committee charged with the duty of planning and prosecuting a campaign of educational information that shall touch every charge in that district.

4. That we request our presiding Bishop, at the earliest possible day, to call together the special committee of this Board, the Presiding Elders and the Educational Secretaries appointed for the various districts to discuss and plan the best ways and means for the prosecution of our educational campaign.

5. That the sum of $1,000.00 be set aside for this work this Conference year, Emory and Henry being asked to contribute $275.00; Martha Washington, $175.00; Hiwassee, $50.00, and the Board of Education, $500.00.

6. Because of the immediate needs of our colleges for the current year, we request the Bishop to appoint E. H. Cassidy as the commissioner of this Board to work under its direction through the committee above named; all monies collected by him to be sent to the special Treasurer of the Board.

7. That J. R. King be appointed special Treasurer to receive and disburse these special funds as the Board may direct through the above committee.

8. That, for the present, we bend our energies toward making Emory and Henry College an "A" grade institution for boys (it being a "B" grade college now); Martha Washington College an "A" grade institution for girls (it now being a "B" grade college); and that we continue Hiwassee College in its present grade of a Junior College.

9. In order to bring the business management of our educational institutions into closer touch with the Conference as a whole, we recommend that the Boards of Trustees of the same make no debts involving our institutions, except such as may be imperatively necessary for the current expenses of the year, without first consulting the Conference.

10. In view of the plans of the Board for a larger educational campaign, we recommend non-concurrence in the resolutions and suggestions of Rev. S. B. Vaught to us.

11. Centenary College was included in our plans last year. Since that time it has been lost to the Church. But this Board expresses itself as open to receive at any time this year any proposition the present owners of the institution may choose to make looking to the property coming back into the ownership of the Church, and affirms its willingness to receive and carefully consider this proposition whenever it comes. And to the end that something definite may be brought to pass we hereby nominate J. S. French, N. M. Watson and Fred Carter to represent us in taking up the matter with the Centenary authorities.

REPORT NO. 3.

Your Board of Education begs leave to submit report No. 3 as follows:

1. We endorse the suggestion brought to us by the General Secretary of Education that an Educational Conference be called in 1918. We are also strongly of the opinion that this Conference should be held before the meeting of the General Conference, and suggest that the Chairman of this Board be instructed to communicate to the Secretary of the General Board our views on the matter. We also endorse the appointment of one delegate to such Conference and name N. M. Watson.

2. We endorse the idea of an assessment for a loan fund, and suggest that this be collected in those years in which there is no assessment for General Conferences Expenses, and to the same amount.

3. We call the attention of our pastors to the legislation of our Church with reference to education. We regret that so many of our charges have never observed either vocation or college day, and we are led to believe that the one sermon on Christian education is often not preached.

4. We insist that our examining committee keep to the law as to the admission of candidates into the ministry, the minimum for examination being a High School course. Law as it is, it should be strictly adhered to.

5. We do not think it wise to require all undergraduates to take the Correspondence Course, and therefore advise that we do not at present undertake to pay the fees in said school. But we do empower the President of this Board to endorse the note of any undergraduate of our Conference for the $5.00 deferred fee.

J. S. FRENCH, President.

J. R. BROWN, Secretary.

REPORT NO. 4.

Your Board of Education begs leave to submit report No. 4 as follows:

We recommend the following appointments: Rev. N. M. Watson, as Conference Secretary of Education; Rev. Eugene Blake, as President of Weaver College; Rev. E. H. Cassidy, as Commissioner of this Board. We endorse the application of Hiwassee College to the General Board of Education for a donation of $2,000.00. The President of this Board and the Conference Secretary of Education are appointed a committee to confer with a committee composed of the President of the Board of Missions and the Conference Secretary of Missions to determine the respective relations of these Boards to Hiwassee College.

We recommend the appointment of J. T. Booth as a student at Hiwassee College, and the confirmation of E. A. Shugart as a trustee of Hiwassee College in the place of F. C. McKenzie, deceased.

We recommend the adoption of the following memorial to the General Conference: "We believe that it is our Christian duty to aid our Brother in Black. It is time that Southern Methodism should do something for the Colored Methodist Episcopal Church on a scale worthy of our great Church. We therefore memorialize the General Conference to make a larger provision for this important cause, according to any plan that it in its wisdom may determine."

We recommend the confirmation of the following as trustees of Emory and Henry College: H. C. Stuart, Bishop E. E. Hoss, Bishop R. G. Waterhouse, W. S. Neighbors, Leon Jourlman, Judge Jos. L. Kelly, M. H. Honaker, I. P. Martin, and E. F. Kahle, whose terms of office have expired; and also of Judge S. C. Williams to take the place of R. K. Sutherland, deceased.

We recommend the confirmation of the following as trustees of Martha Washington College: Alexander Stuart, Creed F. Bates, J. W. Wright, J. B. Ward, J. W. Ring, S. M. Bernard, Geo. F. Mellen, and S. D. Long, whose terms of office have expired; and also of E. F. Kahle to take the place of R. K. Sutherland, deceased.

We recommend the confirmation of the following as directors of the Greeneville Industrial Home and School: J. A. Burrow, J. A. Baylor, F. A. Carter.

We nominate Fred A. Carter as a member of this Board, in place of Geo. L. Hardwick, resigned.

We recommend the appointment of A. S. Thorn as Principal Montgomery Normal, Preparatory Branch.

The following are the statistics regarding our schools:

REPORT NO. 5.

Your special committee, appointed to examine the financial reports of our colleges to the Board of Education, make the following report:

The reports made from Emory and Henry and Martha Washington Colleges were made by Mr. J. W. Penn, of Roanoke, Va., who is not a member of either Board, and who is a licensed state auditor and accountant.

The Treasurer of Martha Washington College is under bond for $4,000.00. We find that the bonded indebtedness of Martha Washington College is $32,200.00—for a new building and equipment.

We find also that in the running expenses for the past school year there was a profit to the college of $1,017.50. On the 30th day of last April, when this report was made up, Rev. E. H. Cassidy had secured for the College $15,301, in cash and realty.

Emory and Henry College has no debt. For running expenses during the past school year, there was a shortage of $2,160.00. There is a productive endowment of $102,000.00.

For a detailed statement from all of these schools, we refer you to the full reports in the hands of Rev. J. R. Brown, Secretary of our Conference Board of Education.

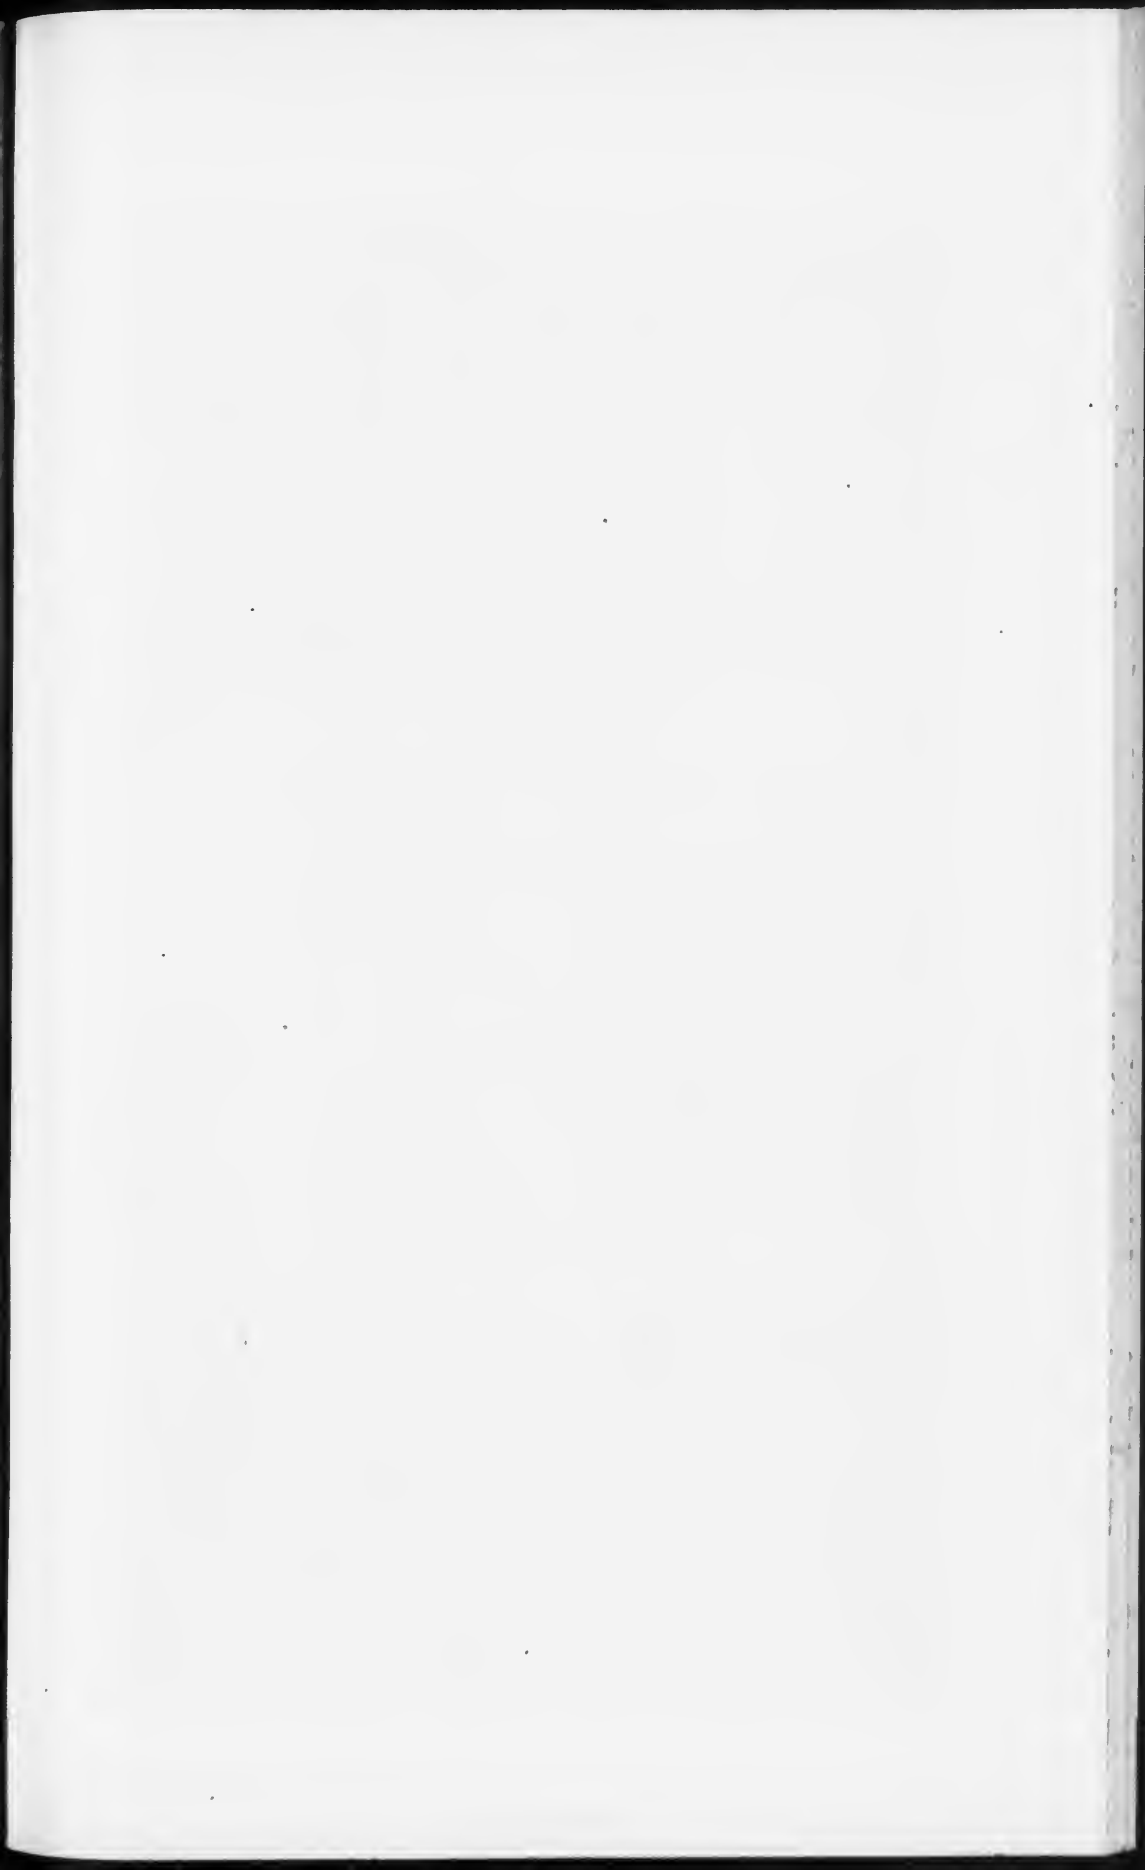

Hiwassee College has no debt. On running expenses for the past school year, there was a profit to the College of $1,249.00.

SPIRITUAL STATE OF THE CHURCH.

Your committee on the spiritual state of the church submit the following:

The reports of the presiding elders as to numbers professing religion and joining the church are very encouraging. It is possible, notwithstanding these reports, to find many things in the church to deplore. Family religion is greatly neglected. Worship in the home has been given up by many, to a large extent. Calling the family together, reading the word of life, offering prayer for protection at night, and guidance during the day is a thing of the past in a majority of homes in our church.

Our prayer meetings are not largely attended, especially in cities and towns. Prayer service is not attracting our people as it should. Hunger and thirst for the bread and water of life as found in God's house, seem not to exist among many of our people. Reading the Bible, in which is found eternal life, is not the habit of many of our members. The complaint holds good that "my people perish for lack of knowledge." He who restores the love of and a return to family and social worship and the reading of God's word, will have proven himself a helper indeed. There is a reason for this state of things somewhere. We incline to the opinion that magazines, secular papers and other light reading have been substituted for the Bible. The moving picture show is more attractive than the services of God's house. Is it not true that many of our members are drawn away from church by the games of "42," cards, wine parties and the dance, and, because of these things, are neglecting the more important duties of life. These things grieve the spirit of God, hinder the exercise of faith, quench our zeal and destroy the peace and comfort that might be enjoyed, if they were put out of the way.

The testimony meetings, which constituted a wonderful power for good in other days, are almost given over. Once they that feared God spoke often one to another, and the Lord hearkened and heard it, and a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the Lord and that thought on his name. It is said of the saints that they overcame him (the devil) by the blood of the lamb and the testimony which they held. "Ye are my witnesses," saith the Lord, "confess your faults one to another that ye may be healed." The disciples testified of the grace of God which had been sent unto them. The prayer of the returning penitent was "Restore unto me the joys of thy salvation, and I will teach transgressors thy ways and sinners shall be converted unto thee."

The spirit of commercialism, love of money, lovers of pleasure more than lovers of God, have come in like a flood, and men and women are carried away on its tide from the simplicity that is in Christ Jesus. Let

We offer the following resolutions:

1. We will labor to bring our people to realize the duty and benefit of reading the Bible, family prayers, social prayer-meetings, as well as the preaching of the word.

2. That we will point out the dangers lurking in social pleasures and business methods of these last days.

SOCIAL SERVICE.

Your committee on Social Service submit the following:

Three decades ago only a few thought on the intoxicant liquor traffic problem in larger terms than local option. Less than two decades ago but few of the states had enlarged their faith and labor for state-wide prohibition. Now behold what God hath wrought.

Eighty-seven per cent. of the territory of the United States has been voted dry. Sixty-seven per cent. of the population of the United States has adopted prohibition. Out of 3,012 counties in the United States, 2,346 are now dry. Twenty-six states have adopted state-wide prohibition: Maine, Kansas, North Dakota, Georgia, Oklahoma, Mississippi, North Carolina, Tennessee, West Virginia, Virginia, Colorado, Oregon, Washington, Arkansas, Alabama, Iowa, Idaho, South Carolina, Michigan, Montana, Nebraska, South Dakota, Arizona, Utah, Indiana and New Hampshire. New Mexico, Wyoming, Minnesota, Missouri, Florida and Ohio have submitted state-wide prohibition by constitutional amendment to a vote of the people. Six thousand five hundred saloons and 112 breweries and distilleries were put out of business at the last general election in Michigan, Nebraska, South Dakota, Montana and Alaska.

An amendment to the constitution of the United States, prohibiting forever the manufacture, sale, importation and exportation for beverage purposes of alcoholic beverages, has passed the United States senate by more than the necessary two-thirds majority, and now is under consideration in the house of representatives. The ratification of this amendment for national prohibition by 36 states after it has been submitted by congress will incorporate prohibition in the constitution of the United States. Only ten more states are needed to be won to finish the job. In the ten dryest states of those remaining wet, there are fewer than 4,000 saloons. The last congress made the District of Columbia dry and established prohibition in Alaska. At the last general election Porto Rico adopted prohibition. Congress also passed a law prohibiting the shipment of liquor in interstate commerce into any dry state, and in addition passed a law barring from the United States mails all newspaper and other liquor advertisements in states where such advertisements are forbidden.

The honor for the achievements of the past belongs to the faithful preaching of the word of God, fifty years of crying aloud and sparing not, and to the courageous leadership of ministry and laity in this battle of the Lord.

Amid our rejoicing over territory gained, over victories won, we must not lose sight of the problems which immediately confront us. As a war measure the United States has closed the licensed distilleries of the country and enacted some salutary measures for the protection of our soldiers and sailors, for which we are grateful. But there remains in the land—a menace to civilian and soldier alike—breweries and wineries, consuming vast quantities of fuels, food stuffs, railroad and man power of which the nation and the world are in some need.

There also comes to us through the press and other mediums of communication, knowledge of debauchery and ruin in England and France, of tens of thousands of Canadian soldiers through drink and vice, and statements that our own soldier boys are to be subjected in France to the same malign temptation and influence. These things we deeply deplore and in the light of facts at hand, we resolve:

1. That while pledging to the government every possible co-operation in the conduct of its policies and plans for the conservation of food stuffs and all other needed supplies and resources we believe that all of the petty economies of the homes of America can never effect nearly so great a saving as the complete abolition of the liquor manufacturing interests, and that we earnestly urge President Wilson to exercise the authority invested in him by Congress to close the breweries, wineries, and other liquor manufacturing establishments within the nation.

2. That we will not complain if our boys go to France never to return, provide they die honorably and valorously in battle, but we will complain if they return to us drunkards or shamefully diseased, and we therefore urge upon the President and War Department of the United States to impress upon our allies that we are willing to freely give of our money and life to the winning of this war, but that we cannot and will not give sobriety, virtue and manhood as an offering upon continental altars of drunkenness and vice.

3. That James Cannon, chairman of the National Legislative Committee of the Anti-Saloon League, J. D. McAlister, superintendent of the Tennessee Anti-Saloon League, and J. A. Burrow, Secretary of this Conference, be authorized and instructed to communicate the above resolutions to the President and to the War and Navy Departments and to each of our several representatives in Congress, with an earnest prayer for relief, and an unequivocal pledge of our undying support in any action they may take to save us and ours from these unspeakable evils.

4. That we urge the members of Congress from our states to continue their fine record by urging and voting and working for the immediate passage of the Constitutional Amendment so soon as Congress convenes in December session.

5. That we rejoice in the fact that since our last Conference, the legalized liquor traffic has gone to its death in the state of Virginia. Today, judges, police officials, bankers, manufacturers, merchants, farmers, pastors, fathers, mothers, wives and children unite in emphatic joyous testimony that both the material and the moral welfare of the commonwealth has been promoted by the prohibition law, even beyond the predictions or expectations of its most ardent supporters. We heartily commend the public officials, under the able leadership of the commissioner of prohibition, Rev. J. Sidney Peters, who have faithfully administered the provisions of the Mapp law, and we urge the next General Assembly of Virginia to strengthen the law in such particular as may be necessary to secure the most efficient enforcement possible, so that the moonshiner and the blind tiger may be banished from the state, and we pledge our hearty co-operation with the Anti-Saloon League of Virginia to this end.

6. That it is with pleasure we commend Rev. J. D. McAlister, secretary of the Anti-Saloon League of Tennessee, for his faithful, prudent, and successful work and that we pledge him our hearty co-operation in all of his work for the coming year.

G. B. LOWERY, Secretary.

COMMITTEE ON CONFERENCE INCORPORATION.

Your committee, appointed at the last session of this body, to look into the matter of Conference incorporation, begs leave to report as follows:

Upon investigation we find that the charter taken out in the state of North Carolina by Chapter 14, Private Laws of 1866-67, is still in effect, that state having no provision for the forfeiture of a charter for non-use. The instrument itself is broad enough to fully cover every demand we might make upon it, and if it is desirable to continue it we would only have to elect seven, or more, trustees to represent us. On the other hand, if it is deemed advisable to surrender this charter, it can be done by the passage of a resolution here and now appointing a committee to petition, in the name of the Conference, the next session of the legislature of North Carolina to dissolve it; whereupon, without any expense to us, it will be done. Your committee is of the opinion that this latter course is the one we ought to pursue, since the Holston Conference now has no holdings in said state.

Several slightly differing charters, any one of which would be satisfactory, can be obtained from the state of Tennessee. In particular, that one contained in Chapter 31, Senate Bill 343, Page 87 of the Public Acts of Tennessee, 1915, would be excellent for the purposes in mind. If the Conference deems it advisable to secure a charter at all, we would suggest the election of five, or more, trustees clothed with the authority of a resolution passed by this body empowering them to secure such an instrument after agreement between two lawyers, one practicing in Tennessee, the other in Virginia, as to the best one obtainable. And we would nominate Mr. Leon Jourolmon and Judge John W. Price as these lawyers.

There is a constitutional provision in the state of Virginia that forbids the granting of a charter to any religious body, and which goes even so much farther than this as that this state refuses to recognize a religious denomination as a corporation even when it holds a charter in another state. Consequently, any charter we might take out will be void in Virginia.

This committee understands that it was not empowered to go further than gather the facts above stated and make such conditional suggestions as have been made. The resolution under which it was formed does not seem to contemplate any direct action being brought before you for consideration. As individuals, we have our opinions as to the wisdom of incorporation, but as a committee we have reached the limit of authority delegated to us when we have stated the facts and advised as to the necessary measures to be pursued in case you deem it wise to incorporate. We therefore most respectfully beg that we be now dismissed.

CHATTANOOGA SAVINGS BANK.

The General Treasurer has collected for the several funds during the Conference year more than $103,000.00.

Last year most of the equipment for the three-year period was bought and paid for, consequently the expenses, including all postage and incidentals, plus the compensation for services, amount to only $148.00.

The Bank has paid to the various Boards in the Conference the following amounts:

Interest on balances -----	$ 529.41
Interest on investments -----	641.05
Commission on investments -----	49.75
Making a total of -----	$1,220.21

In addition to this, the Bank has made no charge for collecting items sent in throughout the territory which is ordinarily charged to customers. It has detailed special clerks to handle the work, which is not taken into consideration in the expenses. The Presiding Elders and Conference Lay-Leaders and the Missionary Secretary have had a complete report each month showing the amounts paid in by the several charges throughout the Conference. It has also made reports to the Treasurers of the various Boards and to all other officials, upon request.

The General Treasurer acknowledges the receipt, and holds for collection, the following First Mortgage Real Estate Loans for the Boards named:
For the Board of Missions—

Lewis -----	2,250.00	4,300.00
For the Holston Indus. School and Home—

Midler -----	300.00	1,600.00
Total -----	$10,550.00	$24,150.00

These loans have all been approved by special committees appointed by the several boards. They are all First Mortgages, amply covered by insurance and are considered by experts as being amply secured.

Again the Officers of the Bank will have to acknowledge the many expressions of compliments received from various members of Holston Conference.

Respectfully submitted,

CHATTANOOGA SAVINGS BANK, Treasurer,

HOLSTON HISTORY.

During the past Conference year I have been busy collecting material for the future historian, selling books, collecting accounts, and writing reminiscences, of which I have several chapters; the reminiscences are both subjective and objective—largely the latter, and, therefore, an addition to Holston history; but I do not intend them to be published in my life-time, and I shall leave them with my children.

The financial status of the History is as follows:

Value of sales from Oct. 1 to Oct. 1	$260.95
Amount collected	194.25

Of our agents, thirty-six are in arrears with their accounts to the amount of $227.37, or an average of nearly $6.32 to the agent.

During the year paid the Publishing House	$ 150.00
Balance due the House	890.00
Number of volumes in stock	904.00
Retail value of same	1,130.00
Due from agents	227.37

Of this amount $52.77 is absolutely worthless.

Of the remainder, $172.60, 75 per cent., may be considered good, that is to say, $129.45.

In our assets are the electrotype plates of the five volumes, which are of unknown value.

Recapitulation—

Debt	$ 840.00
Known assets	1,259.45
Balance in our favor	419.45

A merciful Providence, for which I am heartily grateful, has kept me and family from serious embarrassment during the past year; and in consideration of the fact that for many years I was collecting material and writing without a cent of compensation, being under the necessity of lecturing to small audiences throughout the country for the "sinews of war," and the further fact that I am now engaged in collecting material, of which I have a considerable amount, collecting accounts, writing reminiscences, which are not yet completed, and that I am suffering a feebleness of body and mind occasioned by overwork in producing the five volumes of the history, I shall trust in your reverend body to continue your policy of justice and generosity.

As this may be my last report to the Conference, permit me to say that I still entertain for my brethren, lay and clerical, the profound respect and affection, which I have always entertained, and that I am still sustained and comforted by the trust in God and in His Son, Jesus Christ, that has been my strength and solace in the past, and which I have recommended to others in my conversations, sermons and writings.

CONFERENCE LAY LEADER.

As Conference Lay Leader, I beg to submit the following report:

Just after the last Annual Conference I arranged with the home office at Nashville to send literature to each church and charge leader in the Conference, and in order that I might get their names promptly and correctly I had postal cards printed, and through the presiding elders had them sent to each preacher in the Conference.

On this postal card I requested that they advise me at once the names and addresses of their church and charge leaders, and I am pleased to say that responses came back promptly and satisfactorily, very few in the Conference failed to give me this information. After I had received the cards I had a list made up for each district, giving the names and addresses and sent them to Nashville, and in turn the Nashville office sent out envelopes of special and picked literature to each one of the leaders. I also sent a similar package to each district leader, and through their efforts and the enthusiasm which it created, I am glad to say that we have had greater success in the financial mission work than we have ever had before in Holston Conference.

Below I give you a comparative statement for 1916-17 of the collections per quarter for Foreign and Home Missions:

First Quarter—		Foreign	Home
1916	-----	$ 327.00	$ 1,100.00
1917	-----	705.00	1,909.00
Second Quarter—
1916	-----	3,223.00	7,290.00
1917	-----	5,757.99	10,264.00
Third Quarter—
1916	-----	7,381.00	12,006.00
1917	-----	10,046.00	16,276.00
Fourth Quarter—
1916	-----	16,741.00	19,580.00
1917	-----	15,967.00	20,508.00
Specials	-----	8,187.00

From which you will see we have run $7,413.00 ahead on Foreign Missions and $928.00 ahead on Home Missions, a total ahead on both of approximately $8,341.00.

This increase has come about from the efforts of the district leaders and their work through the church and charge leaders, together with the co-operation of the presiding elders and preachers.

In our plan of organization, we have three committees, Missionary Committee, Committee on Evangelism and Committee on Social Service. I believe the secret of our greatest success lies in the middle committee, that is Committee on Evangelism. As a matter of fact I have always believed that this should have been placed in the plan first, for the reason when evangelistic work is emphasized throughout the Conference it will act as a key to every other committee, as well as a key to service in all lines. It is not only a key to open the heart, but it is also a key to open the pocketbook.

Since the tremendous advance of everything that enters into the cost of living, I would suggest that every district leader, church and charge leader and every presiding elder go back to their respective districts and charges with a determination to advance the salaries of their preachers. Many preachers hardly get enough to make ends meet. Provisions that we all require every day have advanced from 25 to 200 per cent., and the salaries of our consecrated preachers have not advanced to any degree—certainly not in keeping with the advance in living expenses.

B. F. FRITTS, Conference Lay Leader.

BOARD OF MISSIONS.

REPORT No. 1.

In the year 1819 in the city of New York, the first Missionary Society in American Methodism was organized. The next year the General Conference took it up and a Board of Missions was formed, looking to the sending forth of Missionaries. Methodist Missionary activities are now world-wide, employing thousands of Missionaries and using millions of dollars annually. Inasmuch as the year 1919 will mark the centenary of this great movement, we rejoice to know that our General Board of Missions is planning to observe this one hundredth anniversary by means of a suitable celebration.

At the time that our missionary efforts began the church was undivided. When Dr. W. W. Pinson, Secretary of our own General Board of Missions, suggested the appropriateness of such a celebration, he was invited to present his plan to the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church when action was taken at once, and a commission appointed for the task. That commission has already made large plans for a church-wide celebration.

Our Board has likewise appointed a commission and plans are being made for a church-wide celebration. It was thought that much could be done in common by the two churches. Accordingly these two commissions have held joint meetings and are sharing the benefit of each other's counsel. They have planned to hold at least one great central missionary meeting in Columbus, Ohio, in June, 1919, to which the Methodists of the world are invited. Every great mission is to be represented and at least 50,000 people are expected to be present. It is fitting that in an hour of world need and world-wide opportunity such as we now have, such a meeting should gather up the missionary spirit of the entire Methodist Church, hear of its triumphs around the world and impart its vision to all our congregations.

The first great object of the celebration is to tone up the spiritual life of the entire church. Second: To make a complete survey of all our mission fields at home and abroad, in order to present to the church its world program. Third: To emphasize Christ's teachings on stewardship in regard to life and all that we possess in the face of world-wide need and opportunity. Your Board of Missions desires that this entire Conference enter most heartily into the plans of the General Board for this great centenary celebration.

Be it resolved, therefore, that we heartily commend our General Secretary and the General Board of Missions for what they have done and that we, the members of the Holston Conference, fall into line in this great forward movement and pledge ourselves to do our part in making the centenary celebration a success.

J. M. CARTER, President.

REPORT No. 2.

After prayerful consideration of all interests and conditions involved we present for your consideration and approval the following recommendations:

1. That following the method that commends itself most clearly to our judgment, we conduct at some time during the year a careful community canvass for the purpose of finding out just the moral and religious conditions in the midst of which we work.
2. That we conduct an "Every Member" canvass for contributions to all our benevolent causes in every church within our Conference during the week following the first Sunday in November, provided that any church may conduct such a campaign earlier, and that circuits shall have the privilege of using the entire month.
3. That a preliminary campaign of preparation be made, the Conference Secretary providing for an ample illumination of the principles, plans and aims of the movement in the Conference organ. The Missionary Secretary and Conference Lay Leaders are further requested to prepare a short address to all charge and church leaders, giving some details of the plans to be distributed by the District Leaders in each district.

4. That each pastor and lay leader report immediately at the close of the week to the Presiding Elder and District Lay Leader for his district, giving the total number of subscribers, and the total amount pledged in each church. The work will be most successful in that charge which secures subscribers equal in number, or most nearly so, to the membership, and that district will be the banner district which secures the largest per cent. of members. The Presiding Elders and District Leaders will in turn report to the Conference Missionary Secretary and Conference Leader, who shall publish the results.

5. That an Institute be held in each District in the Conference for pastors and lay leaders, and that we urge the District Lay Leaders to co-operate with the presiding elders in making arrangements for the meetings and in securing the attendance of the laymen. After conference with the Presiding Elders we announce the following dates for the institutes:

Knoxville, Oct. 29-30.
Abingdon, Nov. 13-14.
Radford, Nov. 14-15.
Morristown, Nov. 20-21.
Wytheville, Nov. 27-28.

Big Stone Gap, Nov. 28-29.
Bluefield, Dec. 3-4.
Cleveland, Dec. 3-4.
Tazewell, Dec. 5-6.
Chattanooga, Dec. 12-13.

6. That all our people be urged to consider the advantages of using the duplex envelopes, the simplest and most convenient device yet invented to aid our people in making their offerings.

7. That every pastor preach at least one sermon on Missions, or Christian Stewardship, before the canvass begins and that the whole church be urged to pray for the work and the workers.

The Board has invested in first mortgage loans as a reserve fund, $6,050.00. See itemized report of General Treasurer.

From the Statistical Secretary's report in the back of the Annual it will be noted that on the regular assessments Bluefield has a surplus on both funds, Knoxville has a surplus on Foreign Missions and 98 per cent. on Home. Radford and Wytheville Districts have 100 per cent. on each fund with Cleveland next with 96 per cent. and 100 per cent.; Tazewell has 97 per cent. and 98 per cent.; Abingdon has 97 per cent. on Foreign and 95 per cent. on Home, while Big Stone Gap has 96 per cent. on Foreign and 94 on Home.

A glance at the list of specials will show that practically every district paid in enough to show a nice surplus on all missions.

The total paid in on assessments on each fund amounts to more than 93 per cent. of the assessments. This is probably the best record ever made by the Conference. The total Foreign Mission specials amount to more than $8,000.00, against less than $2,000.00 last year.

BOARD OF MISSIONS M. E. CHURCH, SOUTH,
By J. D. Hamilton, Treasurer.

REPORT NO. 3.

Your Committee on Evangelism has not sent out literature, or pressed campaign methods of revival work as vigorously this year, as in former years. Nevertheless we have sought to keep this great interest before the church, and to stir the hearts of the preachers. We have not had overwhelming displays of revival power in as many places as in other years, and fear that the great World War has to some extent distracted the mind of the Church. We are glad to see, however, that revival work is still carried on in nearly every charge and that the Divine blessing has crowned these labors with a good degree of success.

We give results below by Districts:

The fact that our membership shows a decrease of 1,077 from that reported last year gives to your committee grave concern. We bring this fact to your attention and suggest that it should call for renewed consecration, united intercession, and faithful effort in the work of evangelism. This is our supreme work, and it is not well with the church when converts decline, and membership decreases, even though we can point to achievement in other directions. In this connection we congratulate the Conference on having a strong corps of Evangelists for the year and bespeak for them full employment, and hearty co-operation.

We would strongly urge the greatest activity in evangelistic work in this time of World War. The events that are taking place in our day have produced throughout the world a soberness and thoughtfulness that should prepare the way for a vital Gospel plainly presented. The Gospel alone can soothe the unspeakable sorrows suffered by many. Soon our own land will be filled with anguished hearts as long lists of fatalities are published. The Gospel of Christ is the only constructive force sufficient to bring order out of the chaos that exists. Now is the time when as never before in any generation the Church has the opportunity to vindicate her claims.

COMMITTEE ON EVANGELISM.

REPORT No. 4.

We recognize in this hour both a great danger and a great opportunity. A great danger because it is possible that militarism and commercialism should gain the ascendancy, paralyzing spiritual life; a great opportunity because the hour that appalls man is God's opportunity. The Church has always rallied in the extreme hours of trial and shown her greatest devotion and courage in the midst of the fires. The missionary societies of Great Britain were launched during the Napoleonic Wars. The Churches of the United States began to send Missionaries to foreign lands during the War of 1812. The Civil War witnessed a great revival and a great extension of Home Mission effort. The war year of 1917 has been the greatest missionary year the General Board of our Conference Board has ever known, the former realizing 40 per cent. and the latter 25 per cent. increase in income. It has also witnessed the widest and deepest interest and the greatest effort along religious lines the world has ever known. The time has come for the pulpit to speak out with unanimity and with tremendous conviction upon the great doctrine of stewardship and its correlative truth of systematic and proportionate giving, and to count it among its first duties to put clearly and forcefully before the church the high claims and the great facts of missions.

There is much that is significant and promising for our cause in the spirit and purpose of our Layman's Missionary Movement. The former may be characterized as optimistic aggressiveness, the latter to enter upon a more comprehensive and adequate program.

The revival, the fires of which have somewhat languished on Zion's altars this year must burn more brightly. The greatest need of the Church is a general revival that will deepen the spiritual life of our people.

We join the General Board in calling your attention to the Week of Prayer, which is the week just preceding Easter, and urge that it be generally observed throughout the Conference. We call attention to the fact that our Sunday Schools are still to have Japan as their special field for study and support. We share the conviction with and join the General Board in urging that a loyal and faithful observance of the law in regard to the use of the Sunday School collections for Missions is highly important.

We rejoice in the growing interest in mission specials throughout the Church. At present about one-fourth of the entire income of the General Board is from this source. We deeply regret that our Conference, the Conference we love so much, and through which we are giving our effort for world betterment, so capable of leadership, so often found in the forefront of aggressive movements, has lagged behind the procession in the matter of specials. The day of better things must come.

Last year we appropriated $15,185.00 to 84 Mission charges. This year we appropriate to the same Missions $15,546.00, the largest appropriation ever made to pastoral charges in the Holston Conference. We dropped twelve charges from our pay-roll because six had been transferred to the Western Virginia Conference, and one because it had become self-sustaining, and five others because they had been absorbed in the formation of new charges, and added twelve new ones. Thus, pushing out into new territory and bringing appreciatively nearer the goal of occupying all the territory within the bounds of our Conference.

The matter of self-support should receive more careful attention. "Once on the Board, always on the Board," should be discouraged. The appropriation is, in the nature of the case, a temporary and not a permanent thing. We nominate for election the following committee: R. A. Kelly, for Conference Secretary of Evangelism; J. M. Carter, for Conference Missionary Secretary. Your committee on evangelism nominate, and we endorse the nomination of Rev. E. L. Addington, Rev. J. J. Clark, Rev. Jno. C. Patty, and Rev. Bascom Waters, as Conference Evangelists.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

We, your committee appointed to examine the District Conference Records, beg leave to submit the following report:

The District Records were all before us. The records of the Wytheville District are in excellent condition.

The records of the Abingdon, Radford and Chattanooga Districts are good.

The records of the Morristown and Knoxville Districts are not intelligible on account of abbreviations. The chairmen's names are not signed to the Knoxville and Tazewell records.

A number of the supplements to the records of the Big Stone Gap District have not been recorded.

While the records of the Cleveland District are well kept, the arrangement of the official roll is doubtful.

The Bluefield District record shows abbreviations and misquotations that are inexcusable.

raising the debt on Centenary College: Jno. C. Orr, J. A. Burrow, G. C. Rector, G. R. Stuart, G. L. Hardwick, Thos. Pruden, R. A. Kelly. On Tuesday, October 20, 1914, the following report was adopted:

"Whereas, The Conference has assumed the thirteen thousand dollars ($13,000.00) of the amount yet to be subscribed on the debt of Thirty Thousand Dollars ($30,000.00) of Centenary College, we, your commission appointed to devise ways and means for raising this money, recommend: First: That Rev. Barney Thompson and Mr. Thomas Pruden be appointed the committee to raise this amount. Second: That the pastors of the Conference do hereby pledge themselves to co-operate with these agents, whenever they come into their pastoral charges, opening their pulpits, and giving them the most favorable access to their people.

(Signed)

JOHN C. ORR.
J. A. BURROW.
GEO. R. STUART.
THOMAS PRUDEN.
G. L. HARDWICK.
G. C. RECTOR.
BARNEY THOMPSON.

The committee or agents named in the foregoing report—Rev. Barney Thompson, and Mr. Thomas Pruden, instead of raising this amount as they were empowered to do by authority of the foregoing resolution, did, as it appears from the bill filed by Victor N. Hacker, executor of the estate of Thomas Pruden, deceased, in a suit brought by him against the Holston Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, et als, in the chancery court at Knoxville, Tenn., enter into an agreement whereby the aforesaid Thomas Pruden loaned to the aforesaid Barney Thompson, as President of Centenary College, the sum of Eight Thousand Dollars ($8,000.00), the aforesaid Barney Thompson giving a note to the aforesaid Thomas Pruden for Eight Thousand Dollars ($8,000.00) which he, Barney Thompson, signed as President of Centenary College, which note was made and dated October 21, 1914. It appears from the foregoing facts that Rev. Barney Thompson and Mr. Thomas Pruden acted without authority from Holston Annual Conference in borrowing the sum of Eight Thousand Dollars ($8,000.00), therefore,

Resolved, That the two agents, Thomas Pruden, and Barney Thompson, did materially depart from the instructions given them by their principal, the Holston Annual Conference, M. E. Church, South; and acting without the scope of their authority, did not in law or equity bind the Holston Annual Conference, and the executor of the Pruden estate, having proved his claim against the insolvent debtor, Centenary College, and having taken a judgment against said College on said note, which note in its execution, was wholly unauthorized by this Conference, waived any right the said estate ever had, if any, against the Holston Conference; and it is not admitted that any such right ever existed;

2. Furthermore, this Conference is of opinion that there is no moral obligation on the Holston Conference to pay the Pruden estate a note for borrowed money unauthorized by it, either directly or by implication;

3. The committee is of opinion that there is not a semblance of obligation, either moral or legal, against the parties sued as individuals in said chancery cause;

4. No innocent third party was affected by the voluntary action of said Thomas Pruden in loaning said money to Centenary College, and taking its note therefor;

Therefore, this committee advises that said suit of Victor N. Hacker, executor as aforesaid, pending in said court against the Holston Annual Conference, et als, be defended, and that John W. Green, attorney-at-law, who has filed a demurrer in said case, be retained to make said defense for the defendants on such terms as may be agreed upon by him and Dr. J. S. French, chairman of the Board of Education.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

It is to be hoped that it will not sound monotonous to say that we have had another year of progress in both the General and Conference Boards of Church Extension. The Loan Fund of the General Board has almost reached the $1,000,000.00 mark, and our own Sullins-Price-Richardson Loan Fund amounts to $6,431.37. Our receipts on assessment are almost $1,000.00 in advance of last year.

We are very much gratified that the Representative Church at Washington City is materializing and will soon be a reality. We assess the remaining $1,500.00 of our pledge on the same basis of last year—$150.00 to each district—together with any deficit remaining on any district from last year's assessment, and we earnestly request the pastors and presiding elders to give this matter their hearty support.

The assessment of $10,260.00 is apportioned as follows:

Abingdon	$ 975.00	Knoxville	$1,435.00
Big Stone Gap	920.00	Morristown	975.00
Bluefield	970.00	Radford	970.00
Chattanooga	1,435.00	Tazewell	920.00

BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

The committee on Books and Periodicals report as follows:

We urge upon the members of the Conference and upon the Church Membership that they do not let any other interest of the Church, however insistent, force of mind and consideration our church literature, and publishing interests; for upon these vitally depend the intelligence and cohesion so necessary to give force and effectiveness to our connectionalism.

We recommend to our people, pastors and laymen alike, the active support and reading of our Methodist Review, and our Nashville Christian Advocate and our Midland Methodist. We feel that no Methodist in the Holston Conference can be intelligent in the service of our Church who does not both read and support these three general periodicals of Methodism. We could call to your minds always the fact that improvements in Church literature can be brought to pass only by increased support, and never by "stopping your paper."

We commend to all our people, and especially to such as have peculiar interests in the several activities they represent, our Missionary Voice, our Epworth Era and our comprehensive Sunday School literature.

We recommend that our pastors bring to the attention of all our people the fact that any and all literature of respectable character may be purchased through our Publishing House as cheaply as anywhere; and that buying our supplies through them helps the financial interests of all our Church enterprises.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

The Fourth commandment given by God on St. Sinai has forever settled the question of the sanctity of the Sabbath. If there should still be any doubt about it in the minds of any the many references to it in both the Old and New Testaments should be sufficient to convince the most skeptical. One of the great sins for which Israel was so severely punished by God was their failure to keep the Sabbath day holy, while on the other hand some of the most gracious promises God has made to His people have been conditioned on Sabbath-keeping.

But we fear our nation is forgetting the positive teaching of the Word of God and the experiences of Israel regarding this, and that our sense of the sanctity of Sunday is slowly passing away. We cannot be blind to the fact that there are strong tendencies in these modern times to do away with the Sabbath as a sacred institution, making it little more than any secular day.

Four things in particular we would call attention to as making against it in our own day: The Sunday newspaper, the moving picture show, Sunday baseball, and the automobile. The largest single edition of the daily paper is the Sunday issue. Carrying large space given to market reports, the theater, sports, and sensational and scandalous matter, it has become a powerful factor in destroying the proper frame of mind and heart for the observance of the day for holy meditation and worship.

More recent than this is the moving picture show. It numbers its votaries by the multiplied millions, and now its promoters are making a strong fight to run it on Sunday, and in many places have succeeded in their efforts. We look with considerable anxiety upon this modern movement; it is perilous to the Sabbath as a holy day.

Sunday baseball is a growing modern evil. A purely secular sport, innocent in itself, but wholly out of place on Sunday, it is doing much to destroy the sanctity of this holy day. The increasing tendency on the part of our state legislatures to favor the playing of baseball on Sunday is alarming.

But perhaps the greatest peril to the Sabbath in these days of ours is the automobile. A means of great usefulness and pleasure, and multiplying with marvelous rapidity, it is, nevertheless, affording one of the very greatest temptations to Sabbath desecration. Our people, busy during the week, get out their autos on Sunday morning and spend much of the day traveling to and from the country, or on long journeys planned ahead, absenting themselves from Sunday school and Church and turning God's holy day into a mere holiday. We look with strong disfavor upon all this. It demands our most serious and prayerful consideration.

Our Sabbath is in peril. This simply means that our Nation and our religion are in peril, and it behooves us as watchmen on the walls of Zion to cry aloud and spare not until Christian people everywhere shall be awakened to the danger, and the Sabbath, as a sacred institution ordained of God, be protected from further encroachments. To this end we urge our preachers to warn our people from the pulpit of the dangers to our Nation through Sabbath day desecration, and we insist upon the sacred observance of the day; and also that our laymen shall heartily support them in this endeavor.

CARROLL VARNER, Secretary.

N

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

It is gratifying to read the report of our General Secretary. League work has prospered during the past year. There has been a gain of 96 League work. The Holston Epworth League Conference is doing a greater of which amount $25,030.00 was for Missionary specials. This must cheer the heart of every lover of our young people.

Our Board is deeply impressed with the importance of our Epworth League work. The Holston Epworth League Conference is doing a greater work today than has been done since its organization. The last annual Conference was pronounced as the most successful ever held by that organization. At the annual consecration service, during the Conference, over 100 young men and women consecrated their lives for the work of the Master, and we believe that this alone is well worth the efforts that have been put forth in this work.

The members of the League Conference have for several years assisted in the financial support of Hiwassee College, and during the past few years many of our individual chapters have donated liberally towards the construction of the boy's dormitory at that institution. They have paid a young lady's tuition through school for a period of four years, and she leaves soon for missionary work in Cuba. This young lady consecrated her life for this work in an Epworth League meeting.

The Leagues are planning to give through their Conference, $1,000.00 towards the mission work in Africa, beside the large amount of home mission work that has been going on during the past year, which includes services in jails, industrials, settlement districts, rendering aid to the needy, etc. They are also contemplating paying a young man's tuition through Emory University.

The Epworth League provides the only training school for all around church work. What will our church be ten or fifteen years from now, if we do not stand firmly behind the League, by organizing and operating one, wherever possible. The young people look to us, as their pastors as their leaders.. We should go to our charges with the full determination of organizing an Epworth League, if possible. We must stand behind the League organization, for stability and support.

Be it resolved that we most heartily approve the campaign of organization undertaken by the Epworth League and commit ourselves to the aim of placing every Epworth League upon the standard presented by the General Board, and organizing an Epworth League in every pastoral charge.

Be it resolved that as presiding elders, pastors and lay workers we pledge our hearty co-operation in the Big Drive, and that we accompany our words by our prayers.

Be it resolved that we rejoice greatly in the excellent work of the Holston Conference Epworth League, as personally known to many of us and reported by the President, Mr. Floyd M. Brown, whose presence with us we recognize; and that we especially commend and set forward the several enterprises—missionary, educational and extension—undertaken by the Conference League.

Be it resolved that we observe the Epworth League Anniversary Day, the second Sunday of May, as nearly as possible in all our pastoral charges and that the offerings made on those days be scrupulously devoted to Epworth League extension as provided in the Discipline.

A. B. HUNTER, Secretary.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

With the increasing demands on other causes and claims, that of the American Bible Society is not diminishing. This is our only channel of giving the printed word to the world, and the world's need is perhaps greater today than ever before. Our boys in training are being supplied with the Bible at a nominal cost, and the Society is in great need of all the funds it can command.

Our assessment for this worthy cause is a small one, and should have been paid in full. On assessment of $1,000.00 the past year, $889.00 was paid. This was an increase of $51.00 over the previous year, but is $111.00 less than should have been paid.

We would leave the assessment at $1,000.00, with the same distribution to the Districts as last year, and urge the brethren to raise this amount in full.

Q

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

The report of the Secretary of the General Sunday School Board shows the year past to be one of great progress throughout the entire church. Since facts and figures regarding the work of the whole church may be had by all who desire them through the year book of the General Sunday School, we shall not undertake to give them here. The School of Methods conducted at Lake Junaluska this year was in every sense a success. Next year this school will offer a special course of training for pastors, and one for Sunday School Superintendents. Wherever possible, we urge our pastors, superintendents and teachers to attend the Junaluska Training School. In our own Conference the year has been one of earnest effort rewarded by rich returns. It has been the greatest year of progress ever made by our schools. In April last year the Conference was covered by a series of District Institutes conducted by Mr. C. J. Nugent, Divisional Field Secretary, and Rev. S. S. Boyer, Conference Field Secretary. Brother Boyer has been in labors abundant all the year, having entered in his field work in every district in the Conference, seven of which he has covered in a very thorough way.

The Board has asked Bishop Waterhouse to reappoint Brother Boyer to the office of Field Secretary for another year, and we present him to the presiding elders and pastors asking them to use him in such a way as to get the best results, and at the same time conserve his strength and expense.

With devout gratitude for the blessings of the past year, we propose larger and better things for the year that lies before us. We propose holding in the month of April, 1918, three or four great Institutes or Schools of Methods, so located as to reach the entire Conference. A strong faculty is being engaged for this work and in the carrying out of this program, considerable expense will be brought upon both the Conference and the General Sunday School board, which will be a good investment, provided our Sunday School folks shall avail themselves of the benefits. We, therefore, beg our pastors to so plan their work as to be able to attend and to see that their Superintendents and Teachers do likewise; that Presiding Elders should call attention to these meetings in their Quarterly Conference, and see that every charge in their respective districts shall elect delegates at sufficient time in advance, giving special attention to the attendance of members of the District Sunday School Board, since helping the members of the District Boards is one of the special reasons for holding the schools of methods.

We believe that in many cases the local Sunday School should bear the expense of their workers in attending these meetings.

We recommend the holding of a Sunday School District Conference in each Presiding Elder's District, in the early summer under the management of the Presiding Elder, and the District Sunday School Board, and suggest that these Conferences be so dated that the Conference Field Secretary may attend and assist in them.

Japan will be the mission field before the Sunday Schools of the Church for the coming year. Lessons, programs and special courses will be available. However, since Mexico has been taken as a special field by Holston Conference, it is our judgment that our local schools should be allowed to direct their specials to Mexico, if they so desire. In either case, we pledge to our mission board the hearty co-operation of our Sunday Schools in their forward movement for missions.

The Sunday School board by resolution asks our Sunday School to observe only those special days that are endorsed by the General or Conference board, or are provided for by the discipline.

We have from twenty to forty thousand boys and girls in the schools of Holston Conference, who have reached the age when they should be led to surrender their lives to Jesus. The opportunity is better now than it will ever be again. We ask that every pastor shall at an early day call together his Sunday School Officers and Teachers and lay on their hearts the question of the unsaved of their classes, urging every teacher to become a personal evangelist.

Previous to the year now closing the Sunday School board has had no income except one-half of the money raised on children's day. With the employment of a field Secretary and the large amount of institute, and other work undertaken, this was found to be an insufficient source of income. The Sunday Schools were appealed to for an extra contribution, the equal of two cents per member. Some schools responded to this call and the board received as a result $176.00. The larger program of the coming year raises the demand for larger income. Therefore, the board asks that December the second be observed as Sunday School day and that on that day every Sunday School in the Holston Conference will take an extra offering equal to two cents for each person enrolled. The Board asks this only that it may be able to render service to the schools.

We recommend the observance of the fifth Sunday as Orphanage Day, and the co-operation of all our schools in the efforts of the National Food Commissioners to enlist the Sunday Schools of America in the movement for the conservation of food. We adopt the following goals:

Ten thousand increase in enrollment.

The organization and enrollment with the Wesley Bible Class department of all classes above twelve years of age.

The organization of one hundred teacher training classes.

Children's day (or when this is absolutely impossible, a special day with special sermon by pastor) in every school.

The presentation of the claims of Christ as a personal Saviour to every pupil who has reached the age of discretion and has not previously professed a living faith.

L. W. PIERCE, Chairman.

D. T. MILES, Secretary.

MEMOIRS.

ROBEY KINZER SUTHERLAND.

The many friends of Robey K. Sutherland were greatly shocked at the news of his death, which occurred at Emory, Va., on November 15, 1916. He had just passed his forty-sixth birthday, and not even his most intimate friends knew of the malady which caused the untimely end. Immediately after returning from Conference he had gone to Johns Hopkins Hospital, only to learn that medical skill could not reach his trouble. Returning home, he was unable to see his friends; and in a fortnight the end came.

Robey Kinzer Sutherland was the son of Rev. A. C. and Sallie Kinzer Sutherland. He was born on October 18, 1870, in Carroll County, Va., near the site of Galax. In the home of his boyhood faith was kept with God and man. Its atmosphere and tone were sincerely Christian. Robey's nature was saturated with this spirit. From childhood he was a Christian. When he was eleven years of age he began the practice of daily Bible reading, and this became one of the fixed habits of his life. In his fifteenth year he made public profession of faith in Christ and voluntarily assumed

In this same year (1885_ he entered Sparta Academy, then under the direction of Prof. S. W. Brown. The next year he taught school during the fall at Wolf Glade; but during the two years following he was again at Sparta Academy, from which he received a certificate of proficiency in mathematics, science, and Latin o fthe date of May 1, 1889.

In September, 1889, he entered Emory and Henry College, from which in due course he graduated in June, 1893. The next year he was a student at Vanderbilt University.

At the memorable Conference which was held at Abingdon, Va., in 1912, 1889; received on trial into the Holston Conference at Abingdon, Va., in 1894, at which time (October 28) he was ordained a deacon by Bishop John C. Granbery and was received into full connection two years later at Cleveland, Tenn. He was ordained as an elder by Bishop Alpheus W. Wilson at Bluefield, W. Va., October 15, 1899. His first charge was in the West Virginia coal fields, at Cooper's, where he served one year, 1894-95. After this two years were spent in the Algoma and Arlington charge. In the fall of 1897 he was appointed to Harriman Station, but on account of ill health was unable to finish the year's work. His health being restored, he was sent to Anderson Street, Bristol, in 1898. Here he spent two years. He was appointed to Pocahontas Station in 1900, but was again forced by ill health to give up his work before the end of the year. Growing stronger, he served Liberty Circuit two years, 1901-4; East Radford Station, three years, 1904-07; Marion Station, four years, 1907-11; Big Stone Gap Station, one year, 1911-12.

John Randolph Walker, son of Daniel Alexander Walker and Har-Brother Sutherland was appointed Agent of Emory and Henry College and put in charge of the Emory and Henry campaign for the securing of $75,000.00 within Holston, in order that conditional offers of another $75,000.00 might be accepted. His appointment gave universal satisfaction, and his work met the expectations of his brethren. The board of trustees of Emory and Henry College requested that he be continued as Agent, and this appointment was made from year to year for four years. He was appointed to Emory Station in 1916, where, in addition to his work as pastor, he was to teach the college Bible course.

On September 18, 1898, Brother Sutherland was married to Amanda Barns, daughter of O. F. and Mary Gillespie Barns, of Tazewell County, Va. Their married life was a very gracious and harmonious one. To them were born five children—four sons and one daughter. One of the boys died at Marion.

Brother Sutherland was a son of whom his parents were justly proud, a husband on whose strength and wisdom his wife safely leaned, a father to whom his children gave ungrudging reverence and obedience, a friend trusted and loved by those who knew him.

From the first he was a useful itinerant, faithful and diligent as a pastor, instructive and warm-hearted as a preacher. His people loved him.

Perhaps his most notable work in the Conference was that which he did as campaign leader in raising funds for Emory and Henry College and in the erection of the new administration building.

Brother Sutherland died as he had lived—with a sweet, wholesome faith in God and with tender love for his mother, sister, wife, and children. We shall miss him from our gatherings and from the places where the labors of Christ's Church are done. But we know where he awaits our coming.—I. P. Martin.

JOHN RANDOLPH WALKER.

John Randolph Walker, son of Daniel Alexander Walker and Harriet Neel Walker, was born May 12, 1850, in Tazewell County, Va., and departed life in Charlottesville, Va., January 23, 1917.

He was married to Mary J. Brown December 1, 1875, with whom he lived for forty-one years and three days. To this union were born nine children, all of whom were present at his funeral.

Brother Walker joined the Methodist Church when a boy in his thirteenth year. He was granted a license to preach at Christman's Chapel, on the East Tazewell Circuit, Jeffersonville District, February 19, 1876, A. A. Spotts, Secretary, and Rev. Tobias F. Smith, presiding elder. He joined the Holston Conference October 18, 1876, at Bristol, Tenn., and was ordained October 27, 1878, in Knoxville, Tenn., by Bishop H. H. Kavanaugh, and ordained elder October 24, 1880, in Morristown, Tenn., by Bishop H. N. McTycire.

In the forty years of his faithful ministry he served twenty-one pastoral charges and attended every Annual Conference but one during this time. During all these years of his ministry, extending as it does to almost a half century and covering many counties in parts of three States, and beginning in the early days of Reconstruction and continuing to the Annual Conference in Bluefield, W. Va., last fall, there has never been the slightest criticism of his social life, business life, or moral character in any way. He was brave, honest, and truthful in all things. He was frank, courteous and brotherly. As a minister he compared favorably with the leaders of his day. He possessed a fine memory and an analytical mind. His sermons were well thought out and betrayed the genius back of them.

It is not expected in this brief article that one should try to sum up even approximately the good done by Brother Walker in his large field of forty years of ministry. But aside from all he did to spread Scriptural holiness and build up Zion, he had reared a family of nine children, five boys and four girls, giving to all of them college or university training or both and sending them out to bless the world. This, done in recent years, with the salaries paid teachers and the ever-increasing cost of living and education, speaks for his industry and frugality. Be it said to his credit that he always met his financial obligations. The industry and economy of his good wife made this possible.

Nobody but God and the angels and perhaps his own family knows how loyal and true has been this wife and mother during this long period of itinerant service. She fully deserves what she rightfully has—the esteem and respect of all who know her best.

These long years, these short years, these tender years of union have been interrupted by death; but it will not always be so. Paul said: “I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep * * * for if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.”

“Servant of God, well done.”—J. William Rader.

AYRES KINCAID.

Ayers Kincaid was born at Island Ford, Anderson County, Tenn., on the seventeenth of April, 1849. The home from which he sprang was a religious one. His godly mother at an early age brought him under religious influences and he gave his heart to God. In experience meetings, with streaming eyes and trembling lips, he gave thanks to God for this mother's prayers and faith. Brother Kincaid had no days of dissipation to mourn over, nor wild oats to reap. From a child he knew the Christ whose power was manifest in character of great beauty.

Having determined to give his life to the ministry our brother joined the Conference at Old Market Street Church in the city of Chattanooga in the year 1872. Quite a number of his class still survive him to mourn the loss of a loved friend and a devoted comrade. J. A. Bilderback, S. T. M. McPherson, D. S. Hearon, W. H. Price and J. W. Smith still bless the world with their presence and give testimony to the worth of their departed class-mate.

A preacher's wife makes or mars the preacher's usefulness. Brother Kincaid was fortunate in the choice of a help-mate. On October sixteenth, 1878, he was united in marriage to Miss Sarah Elizabeth Paris with whom he lived in happy wedlock for thirty-nine years. Without murmur or complaint Sister Kincaid bore the hardships of the Methodist itinerancy and helped her husband with his hard tasks. Just two years ago this beloved wife was laid to rest in the cemetery at Cleveland, Tenn., leaving a richer heritage than gold or silver, the memory of a holy life. After her death our departed brother longed for the reunion. A glad day it must have been when these two souls were again united in the land of joy and light.

Our comrade loved the church and served her with an unselfish devotion. His works were usually hard but no man ever heard from him a syllable of complaint. Without a murmur he accepted his appointment and to the best of his ability did his work. He was utterly unselfish, and like his Lord, he had learned that the only true life is the sacrificial one. How he managed to educate his children and keep the wolf from the door is one of the mysteries of the parsonage.

As a pastor Brother Kincaid was faithful, as a preacher earnest and effective. Souls were born into the kingdom under his gentle and persuasive sermons. He was wont to say that he "tried to admonish and persuade people to a higher life rather than abuse them for doing the things that were not for their good." So trustworthy was he that to him the broken-hearted brought their secrets, knowing that they were in the keeping of one who was faithful to every trust. His character was a sermon more eloquent than any words. Ofttimes whilst preaching or testifying his on sea or land" would illumine his gentle face. Souls were saved and on sea or land would illumine his gentle face. Souls were saved and saints edified wherever he ministered.

Superannuation did not spell the end to our brother's usefulness or faithfulness. He was always at prayer-meeting, rain or snow in no wise preventing him. He was present as a sympathetic hearer and not as a critic. His pastor never had occasion to doubt his love or friendship. He was faithful and now has entered into the joy of his Lord.

Some time before his death the Sabbath School lesson was on "Heaven." In Brother Bate's class Brother Kincaid began to talk about the home of the soul. As he talked his face began to glow and in his mind's eye "he saw the radiant form of his wife waiting him in the "land of wonder." How happy the old saint became under the spell of his glorious vision.

A few months later God called him and he answered "ready." During his last days he suffered much, but pain could not obscure his spiritual vision. On the thirty-first day of August, 1917, in the city of Chattanooga the old soldier fell asleep to awake in heaven.

"Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep,
From which none ever wakes to weep
A calm and undisturbed repose,
Unbroken by the last of foes."

—J. W. Moore.

EDMUND A. TILLY.

With a full heart I write this word of affectionate tribute to my friend and college room-mate. We were members of the same literary society at King College, in Bristol; lived in the same town, Bristol; were licensed to preach in the same Quarterly Conference, with the now sainted Dr. Frank Richardson as presiding elder; roomed together in Wesley Hall, Vanderbilt University; occupied the same room at Cleveland, Tenn., in 1885, when we were received together on trial into the traveling itinerancy. Though we asked only adjoining circuits or missions so that we might help each other in meetings, he was sent to Pocahontas, Va., and I to Cherry Street Mission, Chattanooga—more than 400 miles apart! Then he went across the seas to Brazil, the land of the Southern Cross to be a missionary. And then he slipped out and up to the Summer Land eternal, where, some day, we shall meet again.

Edmund A. Tilly was born in Bristol, Tenn., Sept. 24, 1864. He received his early education in Bristol, and graduated from King College in 1883. He spent one year in the theological department at Vanderbilt University and joined the Holston Conference in 1885, at Cleveland, Tenn., with Bishop Keener presiding. His first appointment was Pocahontas, Va. He left this charge to go to Brazil as a missionary in 1888, appointed by Bishop Granbery.

Nov. 6, 1890, in Sao Paulo, Brazil, he was married to Miss Ella V. Porter, a native of Knox County, Tenn. To them were born four daughters.

In the Brazil Mission he occupied the following positions in the Conference: Twice presiding elder (4 years each term); was professor in the theological department of Granbery College for several terms; editor of the Expositor Christao (the Conference organ) four years. In the absence of the Bishop he was elected once as the President of the Brazil Conference. While pastor and presiding elder, in Petropolis, Rio, he published a book of sermons entitled "Doutrinas Christans" (Christian Doctrines).

He worked his first twelve years in Brazil without a furlough. While filling one of his appointments away from home in February, 1907, he was stricken with paralysis. In July of the same year he returned to this country and made his home in Ashland, Va., for six years. While there he taught for a short while in the theological department of Randolph-Macon College and received from that institution the honorary degree of doctor of divinity.

He returned to Brazil in 1913 and again worked for two years under the Board of Missions. In October of 1915, after a complete breakdown, he was brought home to Bristol in a helpless condition. During the year his health seemed to improve until about a month before his death which took place Nov. 27, 1916.—James A. Burrow.

MRS. S. K. BYRD.

Nora Eugene, daughter of William M. and Ellen Newland, was born January 1, 1870; and departed this life July 2, 1917. She was first married to Rev. R. E. Hart, who was at one time a member of the Holston Conference. To this union was born one daughter—Mrs. Willie V. Kyle, who now lives in Kingsport, Tenn. After the death of her first husband she was again married to the Rev. S. K. Byrd, also an honored member of the Conference. To this latter union were born seven children—five sons and two daughters, all of whom, with their father, survive the deceased. About one year preceding her death she was suddenly stricken with a serious illness, although she never became helpless or permanently confined to her room until the very hour of her death. Her exit was sudden, but not altogether unexpected by the family or herself. She had seemed to have a premonition that the end was near, and so expressed herself to the family and neighbors.

She made a profession of religion and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, when quite young, living a consistent Christian life until the day of her departure to a higher reward. Amid all the trials and hardships of an itinerant preacher's wife, she loved and cherished the work, and was a constant stay and support to her husband in his labors of love for humanity and the glory of God. While her husband was out in the field gathering sheaves for the Kingdom, she kept the home fires of religion burning on the family altar, faithfully and tenderly directing the affairs of a model Christian home. Great honor should be freely given to these heroines of the faith who have forsaken their homes and become wanderers in the earth for the Gospel's sake, that the acceptable year of the Lord might be preached to all the world. She loved her husband and children with the tenderest and most beautiful devotion, her hands never tiring in ministrations that went to enhance their happiness.

Besides the immediate family she leaves a mother, three brothers, three sisters and a host of relatives to mourn their loss. Her family are among the best and most respected families living in Sullivan County, Tenn., where she was born and reared to womanhood. She was never known to worry or complain about their field of work, but valiantly arose to bear any burden or meet any responsibility that had been imposed upon her. By her constant solicitude and careful training she lived to see all her children consciously converted and in the church, save the two youngest. To her great delight the eldest son was licensed to exhort about ten days before her death, which step she devoutly wished would end in his entrance into the itinerancy. A pious and devout Christian has passed to her reward, where she awaits the glorious coming of the loved ones left behind. The writer, assisted by Rev. Roy E. Early, conducted the funeral services from the Methodist Church in Cumberland Gap, Tenn., in the presence of a large and sorrowful congregation. The remains rest peacefully amid the foot-hills of the Cumberland mountains, while her spirit basks in the sunlight of God's eternal presence.—M. P. Carico.

EMORY UNIVERSITY

The University offers courses leading to Degrees in the following Departments:

I. The School of Liberal Arts.

(Emory College.)

Offers courses in English, Spanish, French, German, Greek, Latin, Mathematics, Physics, Chemistry, Biology, Mental and Moral Science, History, Political Economy, and Biblical Literature, leading to the usual literary degrees. This department has a library of 40,000 bound volumes.

II. The School of Theology.

(The Candler School of Theology.)

Offers full and varied courses leading to the degree of B. D. This is a School of Theology, as definite in its teaching as it is definite in its aim to serve the church to which it belongs. The library of the School of Theology is rich and grows richer daily. To it belongs the famous "Thursfield Smith Collection of Wesleyana," which includes hundreds of the autograph letters of the Wesleys and other Methodist celebrities.

III. The School of Medicine.

(The Atlanta Medical College.)

A Medical School of the first grade which offers courses in medicine and surgery covering four years and leading to the degree of M. D. By arrangement with the Grady Hospital, the municipal hospital of Atlanta, and the Wesley Memorial Hospital, which is a part of the University System, the School of Medicine is able to offer clinical advantages of great value to students. In addition to these Hospitals, "The J. J. Gray Clinic"—one of the best in the United States—furnishes the very finest clinical facilities and advantages.

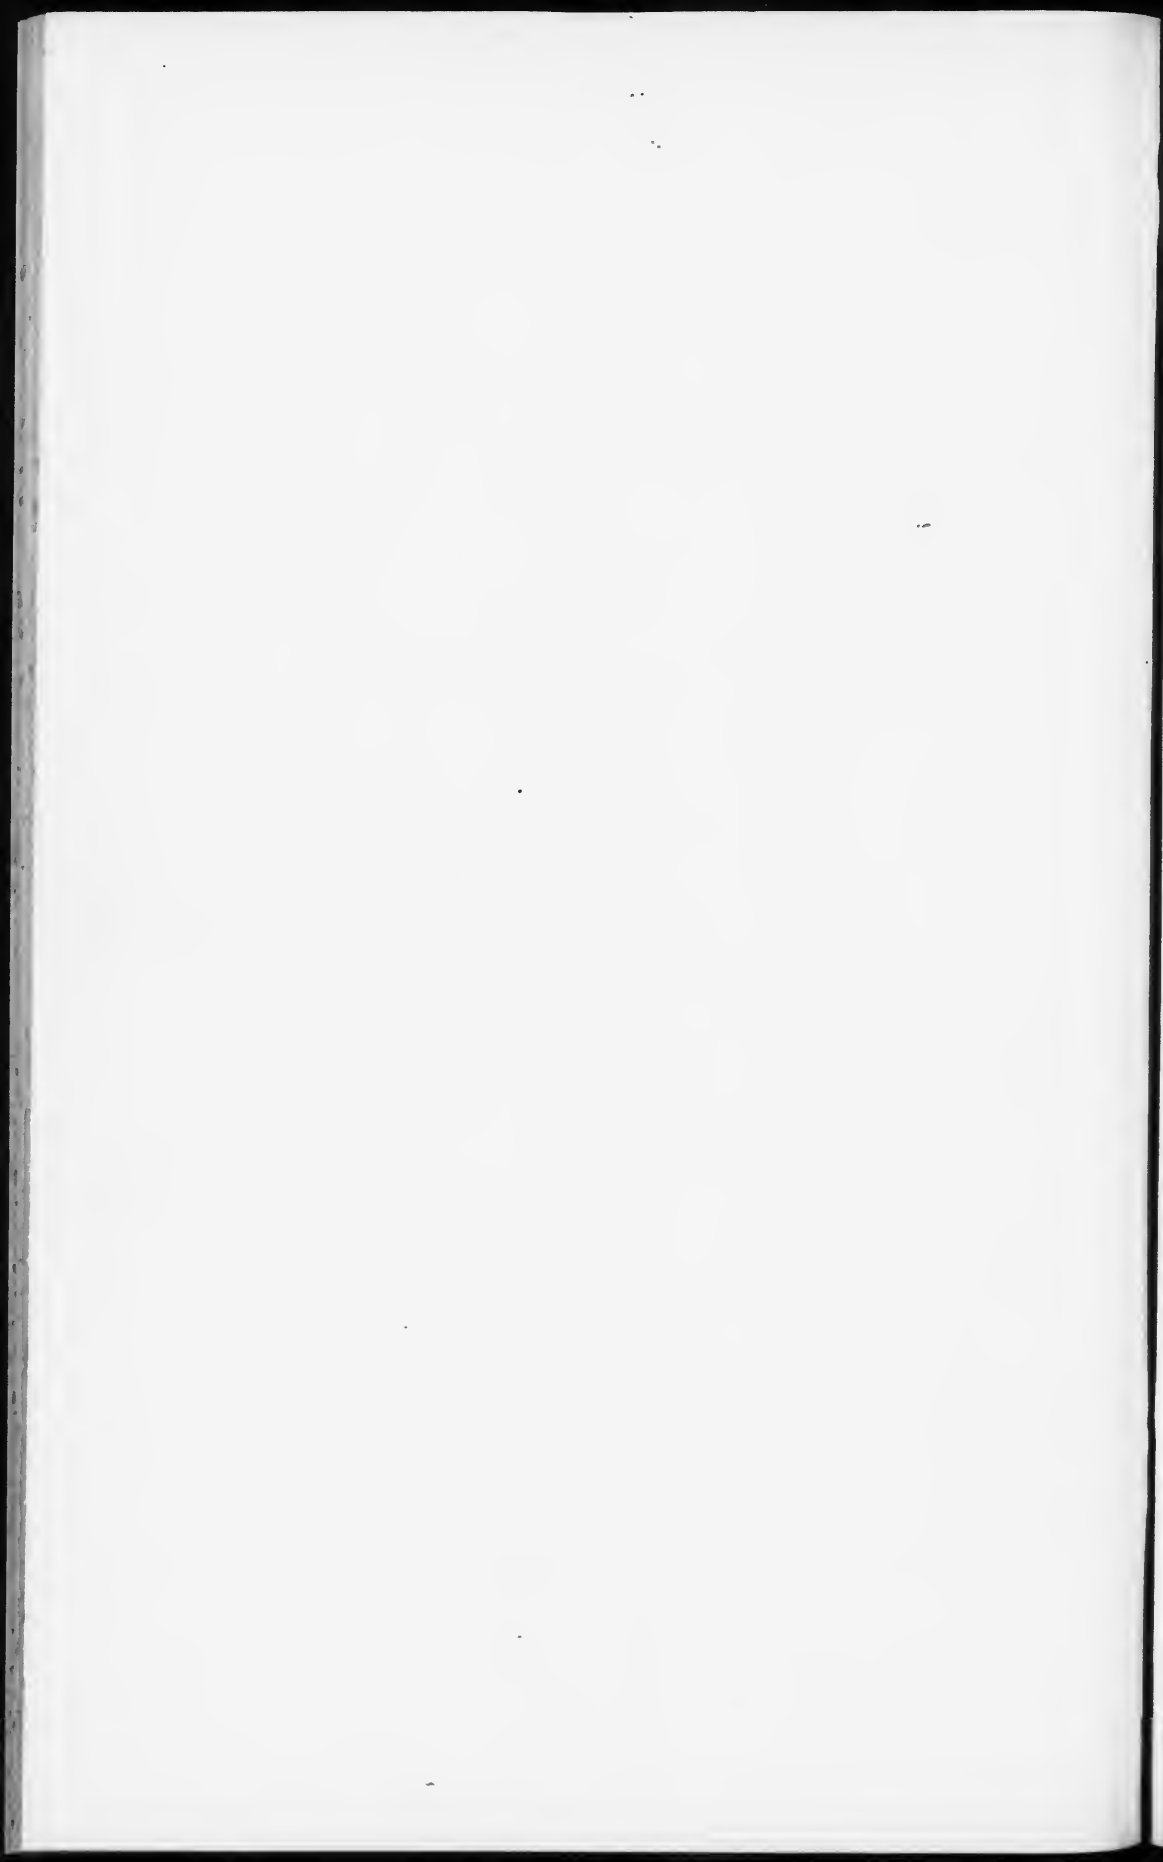

III. The School of Law.

(The L. Q. C. Lamar School of Law.)

A school of law which is equal to the best. For its use has been erected one of the most commodious law buildings in the United States. The library is large and well selected, containing the court reports of the several States and the Federal Reports. "The Case Method" of instruction is employed by an able faculty composed of men who have won with distinction their law degrees in the greatest law schools of the world. In Atlanta every court known to the American judicial system except the United States Supreme Court holds regular sessions. "The Lamar School of Law," therefore, offers unsurpassed advantages for the study of law.
